Edinburgh Libraries’ lead-in to Dyslexia Awareness Week

Building Stories
creative workshop especially for upper primary aged children with dyslexia.

Cathy MacPhail, highly acclaimed Scottish writer of stories for children and young adults is running a participatory session that should be both inspiring and great fun!

Central Library,
George Washington Browne Room,
Tuesday 29th October, 6pm-7.30pm

Places are limited, so please book early by phoning 0131 242 8022 or visit www.edinburghreads.eventbrite.co.uk

Cathy has written over 35 children’s books, numerous short stories, two romantic novels, as well as radio plays for both adults and children. She has also had two comedy series on Radio 2. She has won many awards and is a three times winner of the Scottish Children’s Book award, and the film of one of her books, Another Me, has just been completed and will be released in late 2013. She is a past chair of the Scottish Children’s Writers and Illustrators, the Patron of Reading at Falkirk High and is now proudly an ambassador for Children 1st the Scottish branch of the NSPCC.

“Dyslexia: Beyond Words”
Edinburgh City Libraries & Dyslexia Scotland
Dyslexia Awareness Week
Monday 4 until Saturday 9 November 2013