

JEWELLERY WILL BE THE THEME FOR OUR CHARITY VALUATION DAY AT SCOTTISH
ANTIQUE & ARTS CENTRE, ABERNYTE
ON THURSDAY, 25th MAY 2017 – 10.30 am – 3 pm

Robert Torrens from Strathearn Jewellers will be our expert on hand for our Charity Valuation Day, Thursday, 25th May 2017 in aid of Dyslexia Scotland. Robert opened his first jewellery outlet in Crieff in 1983 and studied gemology at North Glasgow College.

He has specialised in antique and estate jewellery for over 25 years gaining experience through buying and selling at all major Auction Houses and Antique Fayres in Scotland. He still exhibits at Antique Fayres in Edinburgh, Glasgow, Stirling, Ayr and Aberdeen.

With all the latest gem-testing equipment, he has professionally valued thousands of jewellery items over the years for insurance replacement and probate/family division purposes.

His main passion in life apart from Catherine his wife and business partner, is gem mineral specimens and cut gemstones.

Dyslexia Scotland is a national charity which aims to inspire and enable people with dyslexia, regardless of age and abilities to reach their potential in education, employment and life. Based in Stirling, they have a network of 19 volunteer-led branches across Scotland as well as 3 Adult Networks. They provide a wide range of high quality support and services to people with dyslexia of all ages as well as those who support them, including parents, teachers and employers. That support includes a national Helpline, assessment, tutoring and employment services, dyslexia awareness training, conferences, road shows, branch and Adult Network meetings, Dyslexia Awareness Week events and membership services including a quarterly magazine. There is a wide range of information and advice freely available on our website and social media. Dyslexia Scotland also influences positive change for people with dyslexia by raising awareness about dyslexia, developing national resources such as a ground breaking free online Addressing Dyslexia Toolkit for all teachers of children and young people aged 3-18 years and running successful campaigns to raise awareness and challenge myths about dyslexia.

Robert will be available on Thursday, 25th May 2017 from 10.30 am to 3 pm to give a verbal valuation on your precious pieces for a donation to Dyslexia Scotland of £2 per item. Due to the popularity of this subject, we have to restrict each customer to four items for valuing purposes.

We do hope you will come to the centre where you can visit our Café Circa for coffee, lunch or tea and cakes. Alternatively, you can visit our wide selection in the home and fashion departments which includes a wide selection of designer goods to suit all tastes.

For further details about this event you can contact SAAC's Abernyte Centre on 01828 686 401. For restaurant reservations please telephone 01828 686 044. Or visit: www.scottish-antiques.com or Facebook.