

Dyslexia Scotland

What do Ultimo lingerie brand Michelle Mone OBE, comedienne Elaine C. Smith, Olympic rower Sir Steve Redgrave, International rugby player Kenny Logan, 'Just a Minute' radio show host Nicholas Parsons, an 11 year old boy, a 78 year old retired construction worker, a job seeker, a parent, a prisoner and a vet have in common?

They are among the many people who have shared their personal stories about what dyslexia means to them. Not every contributor is dyslexic but they have all been sufficiently affected by dyslexia to write their story.

With a foreword by Formula 1 champion Sir Jackie Stewart OBE, this is a collection of over 100 moving, poignant, sad, shocking, funny, instructive and illuminating stories.

They describe the powerful impact of dyslexia on individuals, families, relationships, professionals and support staff. They give a fascinating insight into how dyslexic people are treated in a wide range of different day to day settings, including job centres, adult literacy classes, education and workplaces.

Our book, published by Edinburgh City Libraries, will be on sale at £7.99 at and after the launch on Monday 31st October. Proceeds from the book will go to Dyslexia Scotland to help people with dyslexia.

I would like to order copy/copies of 'Dyslexia and Us'@ £7.99 per copy plus £2.00 post and packing.

(N.B. If you are ordering more than one copy or live outside the United Kingdom contact Dyslexia Scotland for price of post and packing.)
